

Highwood Current Swim Club (CRNT) Code of Conduct Policy

Swimmers and Parents are to sign this document with registration package:

Athletes, parents and coaches must have a basic understanding of acceptable cooperative behavior in order to work as a cohesive unit and for all parties involved to have a positive experience.

Please follow these guidelines and remember to treat everyone with the respect you would like to be treated with yourself.

For Swimmers

- I will respect my teammates, competitors, coaches, parents, lifeguards, officials, and facility property.
- I will behave in such a manner that will reflect positively on my team.
- I will play fair and always display good sportsmanship, in or out of the pool.
- I will be punctual for all practices and meets and will endeavor to have all the clothing and equipment needed for such.
- When in competition, I will wear my team uniform and conduct myself with dignity.
- I will not use offensive language or gestures, push or shove anyone into the water, disrespect anyone, interfere with another swimmer's movements in the water, or intentionally slow a swimmer's progress.

Failure to abide by our Code of Conduct as set forth here can result in the following disciplinary actions at the discretion of the coach and/or executive committee as they see fit according to the severity and/or frequency of the violation.

1. Time out.
2. Suspension from practice or meet.
3. Dismissal from the swim club for a period, for the season or for life.

For Parents

- In addition to the above, I will not go on deck unless requested by a coach.
- I will not talk about the coaching staff, pool staff, officials, athletes or other parents in a disrespectful or detrimental manner in the presences of the swimmers or other children.
- I will leave the coaching to the coaching staff and abide by their disciplinary actions.
- If I have issues with the coach or others, I will speak about it calmly at a time that will not disrupt or interrupt the practice or competition.
- Any concerns with coaches or the running of the club must be in writing and emailed to the board at highwoodcurrent.board@gmail.com
- I will always be positive and encouraging to my child and all swimmers.

Failure to abide by our Code of Conduct as set forth here can result in the following disciplinary actions at the discretion of the coach and/or executive committee as they see fit according to the severity and/or frequency of the violation.

1. Time out.
2. Suspension from practice or meet
3. Dismissal from the swim club for a period, for the season or for life
